ACTION ALERT & UPDATES

Chicago Public School Teachers & Allies to Protest at Board of Education

The Chicago Board of Education persists in its plans to permanently lay off dedicated and experienced educators, despite the infusion of over $100 million in federal funds to keep educators working! Additionally, the Board has not requested that Mayor Daley declare a surplus of TIF funds, which would provide another $350 million for students' education. This refusal to fully fund schools will be answered by the Chicago Teachers Union and its allies with a large protest outside of CPS Headquarters TOMORROW August 25

WHAT: Protest and picket
WHEN: Wed. August 25 9:00-10:00 a.m.

Campaign Updates

Franklin Park Strike Ends

As a direct result of Arise Chicago's Prayer Service last week, and meetings with workers and management, negotiations with 22 striking Latino union workers at a Franklin Park factory were reopened. The strike ended yesterday and work resumed with an improved contract.

UIC Pending Strike Called Off

After almost a year of having the University of Illinois continuing to say no to SEIU Local 73 offers, progress was made when University President Michael Hogan and Local 73 President Christine Boardman, Vice President Phil Martini and University Counsel Steve Veazie met to talk about what general agreement could be reached to call off the strike planned for Monday.
